Happy Saint Patrick's Day!

Easter Crime

For the past 90 years Norwegians have been celebrating another Holiday tradition during this time of year. In Norwegian it is called Paskekrim,,Easter Crime.

In the early 1920s two young men from Bergen wrote a book titled "Bergen Train Robbed Last Night." To promote their new novel, the young men took out a full-page ad in the Oslo daily newspaper, Aftenposten, and titled it the same as the book. Readers were initially frightened, but eventually when the truth came out, it simply made the book wildly popular and spawned an entire new book genre in Norway.

To find an Easter Crime novel to read try googling Norwegian Noir.

An Easter Brunch recipe

Deviled Eggs with Prosciutto

10 large eggs
1/4 cup plus one Tbsp Mayonaise
3 cornichons (tiny dill pickles), minced
2 Tbsp. goat cheese, at room temperature
2 tsp. Dijon mustard
1-1/2 minced shallots
2 tsp. snipped chives
Kosher salt and fresh-ground pepper
1 ozs. prosciutto, tom into 20 pieces

Hard-cook the eggs, peel them and halve them lengthwise.

In a medium bowl, mix together the mayonaise, cornichons, goat cheese, mustard, shallots, and 1 tsp of the snipped chives. Add the yolks to the bowl and mix until smooth, then season with salt and pepper. Thin the mixture if needed with up to a tablespoon of milk.

Place the whites on a platter and fill the halves with the seasoned yolk mixture using a pastry bag or a spoon. Top each egg half with a piece of prosciutto, sprinkle with the remaining chives and serve.
